

FRED WELCH CHEERED BY BABY DAUGHTER

(By Associated Press.)

COLORADO SPRINGS, Sept. 2.—Challenger Charley White, who will try to wrest the lightweight crown from Freddie Welsh next Monday afternoon in a scheduled 20 round bout, reduced his workout yesterday by one half. He boxed only four rounds.

Welsh took his usual full quota of work with the punching bag and his sparring partners, but the latter were instructed to take things easy and the champion merely danced through the rounds, practicing his footwork.

Little Betty Welsh, the champion's two and half years old daughter, shared the honors with her father. While Welsh was beating a tattoo on the face of one of his sparring partners, her voice rang clear in the quiet hall:

"Oh, Daddy," she cried as she danced on her chair and clapped her hands.

RECORD OF HOSTILITY TO SUFFRAGE CAUSE

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 2.—Efforts to obtain passage of the Susan B. Anthony suffrage amendment by the present Congress were renewed by the National Woman's party. Miss Anne Martin, chairman of the party, telegraphed Senator Pittman, of Nevada, saying that adjournment of Congress without passage of the amendment will constitute a "record of hostility to the political freedom of the American women on the part of the party in power."

DEFENDS USE OF WORDS AS WEAPONS

(By Associated Press.)

BANGOR, Me., Sept. 2.—Atty. Gen. T. W. Gregory, speaking here last night, attributed the prosperity of the nation to President Wilson's success in maintaining peace, defended his policy of resorting to "words and not deeds" in controversies with foreign countries, and denounced C. E. Hughes, Republican candidate for the presidency, for his attacks on the Wilson administration.

"As a part of his administration," Mr. Gregory said, "I here announce that so long as President Wilson presides over the destinies of this nation, so long will words and not deeds be resorted to in keeping peace with the nations, until words have ceased to be effective and peace can no longer be honorably maintained."

"If we had become engaged in this war our condition would have become more or less that of the nations of Europe. The one man who has kept us out is the president. No one will deny this fact, but a former justice of the supreme court of the United States is announcing throughout the country that he is pained and humiliated at the methods which have been pursued to keep us at peace."

ORE SHIPPER'S DEPARTMENT (MOCHERS)

Associated Consulting Engineers

Are you paying freight on water? Are your moisture excessive? Are your cars properly weighed and cleaned out at the Sampler or Smelter? Are you getting paid full value of your ore, or are you losing ore by excessive moisture and another portion by improperly cleaned cars?

Are your settlements as prompt as they should be? If not, let us "Mooch" for you. We have competent men at the various Samplers and Smelters to see that our Client's ore are correctly weighed and sampled, that his cars are clean when weighed light, and that he gets a prompt and correct settlement for his ore. For this service and anything that may come up in interest of shipper, our charge is based on tonnage and will be furnished on application. We are saving money for others, why not for you?

BRAVE KATHLEEN BURKE THE $1000 A DAY GIRL

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The first girl who has been right up to the front of the French army is Kathleen Burke, the same English girl who on her tour early this year in behalf of the Scottish Women's hospitals in the eastern states and Canada, collected so much money that on returning she was hailed in the newspapers as the "thousand dollars a day girl."

A mere slip of a girl of the type that might be afraid of the report of a rifle, Miss Burke stood calmly by the side of the officers in Verdun, and while big shells were dropping about watched the direction of a counter attack that repulsed the enemy.

As a special mark of appreciation of the splendid devotion of the body of workers she represents and of her own zeal in raising more than a million francs in support of hospitals treating wounded French soldiers, she was entertained by three great generals.

Under the care of the Commandant Jean de Pulligny, of the ministry of munitions, and recently chief of the French engineering commission to the United States, in an automobile placed at her disposition by the French government, Miss Burke visited practically the entire front, paying particular attention to the work of the hospitals. She remained in France about a month. "Ten days after my arrival I assisted at the opening of a new ward of 100 beds in the hospital of the Scottish Women at Royumont," she said. "The ward is called 'Canada' because it was paid for by the Canadian money. The money was given to me by five Canadian cities during my hurried visit—Ottawa, Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton and London, Ontario. The Canadian Red Cross made me a splendid gift of $10,000."

"Everywhere I was tremendously impressed by the work of the hospitals, their remarkable systems whereby the wounded are so promptly given the best attention, and I was glad actually to witness the wonderful work of the American ambulance sections. I saw several and they were much closer to the firing line than anyone would imagine, the men being constantly in the greatest peril, but seeming to forget in their zeal all about their personal safety."

Although she knew it in a vague way, Miss Burke says that she did not realize the great danger she was in at Verdun as she stood out near the top of the citadel and watched the battle. Men were falling within a few hundred yards of her. "It was a bit thrilling," she said, "especially to see the big shells, 'rough-words' from Krupp, as the officers referred to them, falling on various sides. I do not retain 'impressions' of any of them individually, but one burst some 200 yards away from where we stood. It was a big one. We did indeed feel much safer when we were in the comfortable and protected vaults under the citadel. I think it must have been the perfect ease and lack of the slightest anxiety among the officers that set me so much at my own ease during the terrific cannonade of the big guns."

For her efforts in behalf of the Serbians, Miss Burke has been made a knight of St. Sava in Serbia, the youngest on the roll. Her organization had four hospitals in Serbia and transferred their work after the German occupation to Saloniki and Corica, where they have the medical care of 6000 Serbian refugees. Another unit is leaving shortly for Russia and a unit which left last month for Saloniki to join the Serbian army is called the "American unit" as it was paid for with funds subscribed in America.

ITALY NOW FIGHTING IN ALBANIA

(By Associated Press.)

ROME, Sept. 2.—Italian troops have begun an offensive in southern Albania and have occupied Tepeleni, 31 miles southeast of Avlona on the Vojusa river, says today's War office statement. The Greek garrison withdrew from Tepeleni. Austrian attacks in the Brenta valley and near Gorizia have been repulsed, the statement adds.
